

Mountain Laurel Quilt Guild

March 2026

A Message from the President

Lion or Lamb
You will never know
Which way March winds will blow.

Let's hope March will bring spring winds and warm weather so we can go to many quilt show or events in March. Every time I receive a notice I will send it to Amy for our newsletter.

March is also St. Patrick's Day so bring something green for show and tell.

Looking ahead to June will be a salad luncheon. Our theme is red white and blue for our 250th birthday. Also bring your calendar blocks.

I am looking forward to seeing everyone because I missed everyone in February. The bad news is we were snowed out but the good news I completed many UFO's.

June 2nd - Luncheon at Grace Lutheran Church. Presentations of Block of the Month Calendar Quilts (or block progress)

Dear Members,
Carol Turner and I were able to represent the guild at ASU's Fiddlers Convention. I wish the weather had been better so more quilters could join us, but the roads were not good that morning. Ten quilts were shown, representing the work of four guild members. There was much interest from the public in the quilts, as well as the basket that the basket weavers guild brought to display. We've been told by one of the organizers that they plan to invite us back next year. I hope you'll join me in completing a quilt to delight them next time!

Happy sewing,
Sally
